○Chapter 6 Supplementary Provisions

Article 1: Always have a heart of gratitude and act with a spirit of respect.

Article 2: Parents should say positive words to the players (good luck, good luck, etc.) during practices and games.

Article 3: Parents are prohibited from speaking to players regarding guidance during practices and games.

(This is because players end up looking at their parents' faces, which interferes with their ability to think and make decisions on their own.)

Article 4: Recognize the play that players make on their own, and praise them for trying even if they fail.

(When you try something like a volley shot or a heel lift, it is strictly forbidden to say things like "What are you doing doing something like a circus?" ⇒ If you are denied that you are interested in trying something like that, you may want to try something easier. (This excludes plays that threaten the safety of opposing players and abusive language.)

Article 5: Parents are requested to cooperate in creating an environment where players can enjoy playing football.

Article 6: If a player is injured due to contact with an opponent, the opponent will not be charged for medical expenses, etc.

Parents should be aware of the possibility of injury while playing sports and take precautions such as purchasing insurance. Please be aware in advance that if you do not take precautions such as enrolling in insurance, you will be responsible for your own treatment costs, including if the treatment is not free of charge due to local medical expense subsidies.

Article 7 Participating players are prohibited from using smartphones (including kids' cell phones) when participating in activities such as practices, matches, and game days, or when leading the charge.

However, even if we are careful, we cannot control the number of children who secretly play with their smartphones, so we will collect the items when the above activities gather and return them when the activity ends.

It is not acceptable to be late for the meeting time due to playing games on your smartphone, interacting with friends, etc.

If a player fails to abide by the above rules, that player will no longer be allowed to bring his/her smartphone into practices and matches.

Reference: Kanagawa Prefecture has established an ordinance that focuses on the safe and appropriate use of bicycles and the mandatory participation in bicycle liability insurance.
